

TRANSFORMING LIVES

Together we're preventing teen homelessness and serving Orange County's children and families in crisis

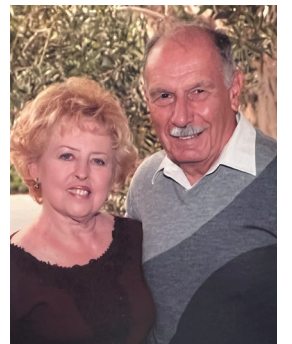

Groundbreaking for Olive Crest's new teen apartment homes in Santa Ana on September 24, 2024

Donald Verleur (Olive Crest CEO), Swenson Family Foundation, members Chris and Cheryl Lentz, Rosie Swenson, Eoin Kreditor, and campaign co-chair Gretchen Valentine (RSM)

Thank you for opening new doors

We're grateful to the Swenson Family Foundation for taking a lead role in helping us support the 23,000 teenagers who "age out" of the child-welfare system each year. Sadly, 20 percent of those aging-out youths (age 18) become instantly homeless. With our new on-campus housing complex, Olive Crest will help even more at-risk teens have a roof over their heads and hope in their hearts.

Susan and Jim Swenson
Founders, Swenson Family Foundation

Swenson Family Foundation Campus

The newly named campus includes the new apartment homes

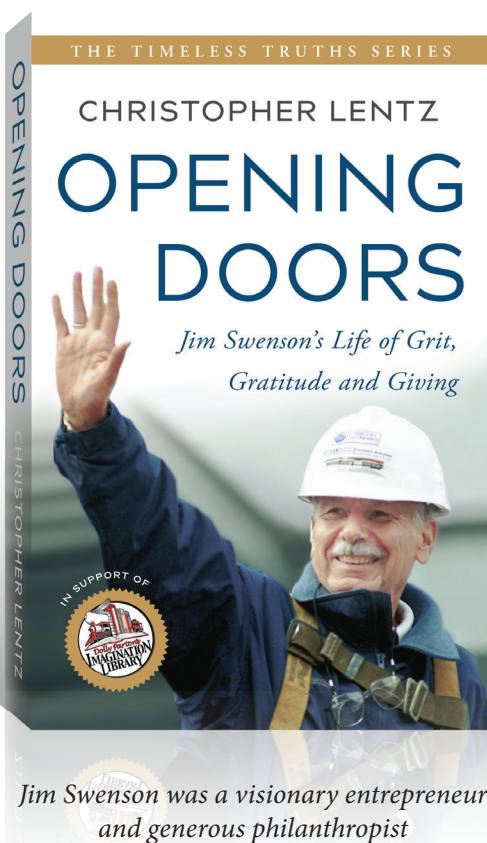

Our new on-campus apartment complex is being built by RSI Communities and is expected to open in winter 2025

And our Child and Family Resource Center

We're renovating and expanding our Children and Family Resource Center and renaming our Santa Ana location the Swenson Family Foundation Campus

Jim Swenson was a visionary entrepreneur and generous philanthropist

Please stand with Olive Crest's Transforming Lives Campaign to keep 1.2 million children safe and families strong by 2030